

KINObrunch 2019: call for entries

To all movie-makers out there! The International Theater and Music Festival JULA welcomes young and talented film directors between the ages of 18 and 35 to participate in this year's KINObrunch. The 2019 JULA festival will take place from 13-17 November 2019.

About KINObrunch:

JULA has been taking place in Munich annually since 2004. The festival is a five-day program consisting of theater, music, photography, and film. KINObrunch represents the cinematic part of the festival, providing a platform for a wide range of cinematography genres, namely fiction, documentary, experimental and animated short films.

Films selected by jury will be presented to an audience of film directors and critics. Following the performance, the audience has an opportunity to discuss artistic content as well as the subject of the shown works in the circle of experts and filmmakers. Best Director, Best Camera, Best Script, Best Soundtrack and an Audience Award will be granted to the winner as part of KINObrunch.

KINObrunch is open not only in terms of genres but also in chosen subject.
